Alain Muster is an associate and member of Pestalozzi's Litigation & Arbitration Group in Zurich. His fields of expertise include international and national commercial litigation and arbitration and contract law.

Alain Muster attended the University of Chicago Law School and received an LL.M. degree in 2015 (Fulbright scholar). He graduated from the University of Bern (Master of Law '08, Bachelor of Law '07) with a specialization in business law. During his studies in Bern, he was a legal intern with the Swiss Federal Department of Foreign Affairs. He completed his junior associate term with Pestalozzi and was admitted to the Swiss bar in 2011. Before rejoining Pestalozzi as an associate in 2012, he worked as a research and teaching assistant at the Institute for Civil Law of the University of Bern (chair of Prof. Dr. Thomas Koller). In 2012/13, he was seconded to a global medical device company. His native languages are German and Spanish.
