Evelyn V. Frei is an associate and member of Pestalozzi's Real Estate & Environment Group in Zurich. Her main areas of practice include real estate, environmental and public procurement law. Evelyn's expertise in the real estate sector comprises all types of contractual issues as well as regulatory topics.

Evelyn V. Frei advises and litigates for domestic and international business as well as private clients. Her experience includes commercial and residential leases, sales, pledges and encumbrances of real properties, building and other work contracts, real estate transactions including public private partnerships and all types of environmental issues. Evelyn is frequently consulted on compliance and other regulatory matters such as the acquisition of real properties by non-Swiss residents or on rural land rights.

Evelyn V. Frei graduated from the University of Zurich (MLaw, 2014). During her studies she worked as a legal assistant in several companies in Zurich and participated at the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot, an international competition in the field of arbitration.

After graduation Evelyn gained professional experience at a boutique law firm in Schwyz and as a court clerk at the Administrative Court of Schwyz where she focused on public law and real estate matters. After her admission to the bar she joined Pestalozzi as an associate in 2018.

Evelyn V. Frei publishes regularly in her fields of expertise.
