Jasmine Senn is an associate and member of Pestalozzi's Corporate / M&A practice group in Zurich. Her main areas of practice include corporate and commercial law with a particular focus on M&A, corporate restructurings, reorganizations and joint ventures. She regularly advises Swiss and international companies in domestic and cross-border M&A transactions. She further specializes in capital markets regulation and financing transactions.

Jasmine Senn graduated from the University of Zurich (lic. iur., 2010) and holds a master's degree from Queen Mary University of London (LL.M., 2018). Prior to joining Pestalozzi in 2018, she worked for a major global consulting firm. She gained further professional experience as a law clerk with the child and adult protection agency (KESB), as a junior associate with a law firm in Zug and as a legal trainee at the Swiss Competition Commission in Berne. She was admitted to the Swiss bar in 2014 and is a qualified civil law notary in the canton of Zug.
