Nikolaus Thaddaeus Paumgartner is an associate and member of Pestalozzi's Corporate/M&A Group in Zurich. He specializes in corporate and commercial law as well as corporate and finance transactions, with a particular focus on public and private M&A, private equity, joint ventures, transaction finance and corporate restructurings. In addition, he advises his clients on different aspects of art law.

Nikolaus Thaddaeus Paumgartner holds a Master of Arts in Law and Economics as well as a Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration from the University of St. Gallen (HSG). During his studies he spent semesters abroad at ESCP in Paris, and at the University of Western Australia (UWA) in Perth. He became an associate at Pestalozzi in 2016 after having been admitted to the Swiss bar in 2015. Prior to joining Pestalozzi, he worked as a junior associate in the private M&A practice group of another leading business law firm in Zurich. Furthermore, he gained experience in the field of contemporary art as an intern at Galerie Thaddaeus Ropac in Paris.
