Petra Spring is a senior associate and member of Pestalozzi's Employment & Pension and Corporate / M&A Groups in Zurich. Her main practice areas include employment and social security law, corporate and commercial law and commercial contracts. Petra Spring advises in contentious as well as non-contentious matters and represents parties before Swiss courts.

Petra Spring graduated from the University of Lausanne (lic. iur. 2006). She joined Pestalozzi as a junior associate in 2007, and subsequently pursued her professional career as a law clerk at the District Court of Uster, Canton of Zurich (2008–2010). While preparing for the bar exam, she worked as a junior associate with Pestalozzi in 2010 and as a lawyer with a major Swiss insurance company (2011–2012).

After her admission to the bar in 2011, Petra Spring gained work experience as an associate in a leading Swiss law firm (2012–2015 and 2016–2017). Petra graduated from the University of New South Wales (UNSW) Australia with specializations in Corporate and Commercial Law, International Business and Economic Law and Dispute Resolution (LL.M. 2016, with Excellence). She rejoined Pestalozzi in 2017 as an associate and was promoted to senior associate as of 2019.
