

Compliance

In an increasingly regulated business environment, compliance – and, in particular, compliance management – is assuming greater importance for companies at both national and international level. Clients who work with us can count on professional legal support on all corporate, financial service and tax compliance matters, risk management issues and investigations, especially when these involve white-collar irregularities.

Our expertise

We enable our clients to meet regulatory legal requirements by testing the relevant compliance programs and advising them on best-practice compliance structures and processes. We are at your side if you have to deal with a regulatory problem or if you are subject to investigation. We also provide support in crisis situations and risk training.
